

Federal Communication Commission:

I am writing in regards to the Consumers Bankers Association trying to use the “established business relationship” allowing their members the right to circumvent the “do-not-call” list and use telemarketers in Indiana.

Our family has enjoyed relative peace and quiet since the “do-not-call” list went into effect. We feel this would interrupt our privacy and open the door to even more groups wanting to call.

Your consideration is appreciated.

Stephen & Rebecca Geis
218 State St.
Newburgh, In. 47630